

Meet Rishonim 21

ROTEM RESHEF lives in Arad and attended a boarding school that specializes in environmental education and Zionism education through hiking and nature. She has been a member of the Israeli Scouts and participated in Shevet Metzada in Arad since the very beginning. Rotem loves performance arts and has been studying dance and theater since childhood.

NOA AZOLAY grew up on Kibbutz Magal located between Tel Aviv and Haifa. She majored in environmental sciences in high school. Her hobbies are traveling, cooking, baking, photography, and going to the beach. Noa has been an active member of the Scouts movement for nine years, and in leadership positions for the past three years.

DANIEL SERI is from Alon Shevut, an Israeli settlement in the West Bank. He majored in cinema in high school and has been part of the Bnei Akiva youth movement for seven years. He has also been a volunteer at Shalva, an organization for kids with disabilities. Daniel enjoys traveling and spending time with his friends and family.

YALI GOREN is from Raanana where he majored in chemistry and social sciences in high school. He loves sports, especially soccer and basketball, and is a big fan of Maccabi Haifa and the Miami Heat. He has been a member of the Israeli Scouts for five years and has taken on a leadership position in his Shevet Hadar tribe.

NOAM VASHDY is from a small town near Kfar Saba called Alfei Menashe. He enjoys hiking, sports, and hanging out with his friends and siblings. He attended an international boarding school majoring in computer science, economics, and biology.

LIDOR AVITAN lives in Eshel Hanasi, an agricultural youth village in the Merchavim Regional Council in Southern Israel. He's been involved in projects connecting teens from the U.S. and Israel for the past few years through StandWithUs. He studied biology, agriculture, media, and radio and has been broadcasting for three years on Kan radio. His hobbies include music, making podcasts, nature, and photography.

Jewish Federation of Greater MetroWest NJ
Jewish Community Foundation

FOR MORE INFORMATION contact Hana Frankl at hfrankl@jfedgmw.org or (973) 929-2953